

Glowing with Adventure

Your new home at FireLight puts you in the heart of Silver Star. It's the western gateway to the village, with gathering places, cafés and shops where you can meet friends to refresh and refuel before playing hockey on the Pond or tackling the mountain trails again. Attractively priced, your mountain home features generous amenities and lots of storage room for all your gear. So no matter what time of year, you're always ready to ignite some warm family memories.
